

Dating Story Scenarios

A. Christian Joe, while at college, meets Sally, who doesn't go to church. They both hit it off and decide to start going out on dates together....

B. They get married, and a couple years later, they aren't getting along. Sally non-Christian meets someone attractive at work....

A. Christian Kelly meets denominational Doug at the park. They have so many things in common that they decide to start spending more time together....

B. They get married, and a couple years later, they start having children. The children decide they would rather not go to church with the Christian, but stay home with the non-Christian....

A. Christian Kyle meets luke-warm Christian (NOT a strong Christian) Lizza at church. They find each other attractive and fun, so they decide to start dating....

B. The non-Christian convinces the Christian to have dates late at night in private places together, so they can be together, have privacy, and look at the stars....

A. Christian Suzzie meets denominational Dave at work. They get along well and develop a close friendship that eventually becomes romantic....

B. They get married. Dave never chooses to become a Christian and gets upset anytime Suzzie brings it up. Over the years, Suzzie wants peace in the home and doesn't want Dave to feel judged or bad about what he/she believes...

A. Christian John meets non-Christian Paula who isn't religious, but seems interested in what John says about the Bible. After a few conversations (without Paula becoming a Christian), John starts dating Paula....

B. They get married, and after a couple years they have a big fight. Since Paula hasn't submitted to the Bible (and doesn't care what it teaches about divorce), she decides to get a divorce....
